The journey at a glance

Feb 11 – Arrival in Colombo & The Opening Gateway

Arrival Day: Hotel transfer, check-in, and currency exchange.
Visit the historic heart of Colombo. Dewatagaha Jumma Mosque, followed by the architectural marvel of the Red Mosque and enjoy an evening stroll along the Galle Face Green oceanfront promenade.

Feb 12 – Colombo to Beruwala

Depart in the morning for Beruwala, driving 76 km south along the scenic coastal corridor. Arrive in Beruwala, the historical landing site of the island. In the afternoon, take a trip to the impressive Ketchchimalai Mosque. This architectural masterpiece is perched on a rocky promontory surrounded by the ocean, offering a profoundly peaceful atmosphere.

Feb 13 – Quiet Leisure and Coastal Reflection in Beruwala

Spend a full day dedicated to personal reflection and relaxation at your premium beachside resort in Beruwala. With this open schedule, you can absorb the serene coastal atmosphere of this ancient port at your own pace, free from the stresses of long-distance road travel.

Feb 14 – Beruwala to Kataragama

Head towards the mystical south to Kataragama, approximately 205 km away.
Your first stop is the ancient complex housing the renowned Khidr Maqam historical sanctuary, dedicated to Al-Khidr (The Green Master). This area has been a focal point for spiritual travellers seeking esoteric knowledge for centuries.

Feb 15 – Kataragama - Immersion at the Khidr Maqam

Spend a full day in deeper presence at the Khidr Maqam. Take time to walk along the tranquil, shaded banks of the sacred Menik Ganga River, sit under the ancient trees of the sanctuary and experience the unique peace and isolation of this jungle complex.

Feb 16 - To Balangoda and Nuwara Eliya - The Mountain Ascent

Travel from the Southern Plains to the Central Highlands (approx. 206 km). Break up the mountain drive with a visit to the historical site of Dafther Jailani (Kuragala) near Balangoda.
Perched on a dramatic cliff edge, this ancient mountain retreat features deep rock caves where the revered master, Sidi Abdul Qadir Jilani, is said to have spent long periods in profound meditation. Ancient rock inscriptions still mark the site.
Then continue to the cool highland town of Nuwara Eliya.

Feb 17 – Nuwara Eliya – Among Misty Hills and Tea Gardens

Enjoy a restful morning in the crisp mountain air with a gentle stroll around Lake Gregory. In the afternoon, enjoy a luxurious afternoon tea at the historic Grand Hotel, followed by a private guided tour of a premier English tea estate and factory, where you can witness the traditional production of Ceylon tea.

The journey at a glance

Feb 18 – Nuwara Eliya to Kurunegala - The Ancient Kingdom Route

Travel onward to Kurunegala (145 km), where the afternoon brings a visit to the historic spiritual shrine of Kekunugolla. Dating back around 300 years, this revered sanctuary is the resting place of the renowned Sheikh Shihabdeen Waliyullah. Steeped in history and spiritual significance, the shrine offers a serene atmosphere for reflection and a glimpse into Sri Lanka's rich heritage.

Feb 19 – Kurunegala to Gampola to Colombo - The Final Circle

Travel through Sri Lanka's lush countryside to Gampola and visit the historic Kahatapitiya sanctuary, a place deeply rooted in the island's spiritual heritage. Here lies Bawa Khauf Waliullah, a revered spiritual master who travelled from Mecca centuries ago and settled in this area under royal patronage. Continue onwards to Colombo, arriving in the evening for your final night, bringing your journey through Sri Lanka's sacred landscapes and spiritual traditions to a close.

Feb 20 - Farewell and transfer to Colombo Airport.

If you have time before your departure, enjoy some leisure time in Colombo, with the opportunity to discover traditional botanical and essential oils, as well as world-renowned Ceylon teas. Private transfer to Colombo International Airport (32 km) for departure.
